12 MORE DEAD, SCORE HURT, IN TEXAS STORM

Loss of Life and Great Damage All Over State, With Railroads Blocked

Houston, Tex., July 22.—The West Indian Hurricane, which swept from one end of the Texas Gulf Coast to the other yesterday, claimed a toll of twelve human lives and a outside of Galveston, fatally injured four and seriously wounded sixteen, according to the details of the storm available here tonight.

Whole towns were devastated and the wreck and ruin to property will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

At Galveston Bay, the situation is not as bad as at first reported. No part of the railroad bridge, which spans the arm of the bay between the island and Victoria Point was washed away, but 50 feet of the structure was thrown badly out of alignment by a huge barge and some small crafts which were washed from their moorings and pounded against the piling.

Reports received in Houston tonight from General Manager J. J. Hill of the Galveston, Houston & Henderson Railroad are that the bridge has been opened for service.

Miss Virginia Wild of Sarcoite was married last Saturday to W. H. Irwin of St. Louis at the home of Mrs. H. B. Boyd at Colorado Springs. They will make their home at Trinidad, Colo.

H. Mansfield, the confectioner is suffering from poisoning on his hands and is obliged to take a vacation for a few days.
